

NetSuite BETA SuiteCloud Developer II Exam FAQs

October 2018

Q: Why is there a new SuiteCloud Developer Exam?

A: We are replacing the SuiteScript 1.0 section of the exam with SuiteScript 2.0 objectives, and also doing a general upgrade of the other content.

Q: How will we differentiate the two certifications?

A: The current SuiteCloud Developer Certifications will be renamed “SuiteCloud Developer I” and the new ones will be called “SuiteCloud Developer II”

Q: Will I have to upgrade my original SuiteCloud Developer certification to the new one?

A: No, you can keep your SuiteCloud Developer certification current by continuing to take the annual New Release quizzes. We will just rename it SuiteCloud Developer I.

Q: How can I upgrade my SuiteCloud Developer I to become SuiteCloud Developer II? Must I retake the whole exam?

A: No, we will offer a delta exam so you don’t have to take the whole thing.

Q: When will the new SuiteCloud Developer II exam be available and at what price?

A: The new exam will be available by Monday, August 27th, 2018, at $250, or $150 for Retakes.

Q: Wait—so I can pick whether to test on SuiteScript 2.0 or SuiteScript 1.0?

A: No, travel is at your own expense. You could take the exam online instead if you prefer.

Q: Will I know right away if I passed or failed?

A: Yes. Same as any other Oracle NetSuite certification exam

Q: What form will the questions take? Will I be working in a demo account?

A: The questions will all be multiple choice, or matching. The computer screens are locked during the exam, so there is no access to any materials or online sources for information. Nor are scratch paper or calculators allowed (you should not need them, though).

Q: Once I am certified, how will people know?

A: There are several ways that people will know. We will provide you with logos for your business card and email signature. You can join the optional LinkedIn Group for NetSuite Certified individuals, which can then be displayed on your LinkedIn profile. Also, anyone who wishes to verify your certification can click on the Verify Certification link from our certification webpage (www.netsuite.com/certification) to access the Certification Status Search Tool, unless you ask to be excluded.

Q: Will I get a logo to use in my email?

A: Yes. We will send an email with logos you have passed. You can also contact certification@netsuite.com to get these files after you are notified of successful certification.

Q: What is the link to the testing centers again?

A: You'll see this information as you are registering, but you can preview it here: <http://www.kryteriononline.com/Locate-Test-Center>
